Do you have a question?

It is the responsibility of every owner and employee in the housing industry to be aware of, and follow, the required federal, state and local laws regarding rental housing. As a member benefit, AAGIE provides operational advice from Monday-Friday from 8am-5pm free of charge.

We may have an answer for you!

In addition to offering free operational advice, we are hosting a question and answer workshop in our office at no cost to you. During this workshop, we will have experts available to answer your questions on:

- Leasing Techniques
- Fair Housing Laws
- Tenant Screening
- The Eviction Process
